

VIX NAILED

May 10, 2010

From the May 6, 2010 report:

"As for the VIX, the April 14 report advised going long at the next day's open, which was just above 15. Today, the VIX crossed 40, before retreating.

"Strategically, since we'll remain short the Dow (of course), we'll sell at 40 and take a huge profit...for a second time....."

Well, the VIX has collapsed, following in the footsteps of today's massive countertrend rally in the stock market. With that, we strategically liquidated at 40, taking a massive profit.

The opening on April 15 was 15.87. Therefore, our profit was 24.13. We'll be back for more later as the VIX is a strategic complement to our positions...as we have seen.
